CALL FOR SUBMITTAL OF ARGUMENTS For or Against the General Obligation Bond Election

The City Council of the City of Harrisville, Utah adopted a resolution providing for a Bond Election to be held in the City on Tuesday, November 8, 2022, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of the City the question of the issuance of general obligation bonds in an amount not to exceed $6,000,000 (the “Bond Election”) and calling a public hearing (Sept. 13, 2022 7PM) to receive input from the public with respect to the issuance of general obligation bonds and the potential economic impact that the project for which the bonds pay all or part of the cost will have on the private sector, pursuant to the Section 11-14-318 of the Utah Code Annotated 1953, as amended.

If approved by eligible voters at the Bond Election, the City intends to issue general obligation bonds for the purpose of acquiring and constructing a recreational facility in the City.

Submittals for Arguments are being accepted in regard to this ballot proposition and will be published in the voter information pamphlet and on websites, see Resolution 22-20.

Eligible voters must submit a ‘Notice of Intent to file an Argument’ for or against the ballot proposition, by 5:00PM Monday, September 5, 2022. Arguments are due by 5:00 PM, September 9th, 2022.

Submittals are limited to 500 words and must include the voters name, email address, residential address, and phone number.

Submit by emailing the City Recorder at mdevereux@cityofharrisville.com or call (801) 782-4100 x1009 for more information.

This information has been posted in utility bills, (4) posting boxes (places) within city limits, the City newsletter, the Public Notice Website, the City FB page, website, and the Harrisville City marquee.
